Sheriff's Department Honored By Special Olympics

On Friday, September 25th, Sheriff Al St Lawrence will present Special Olympics of Georgia (SOGA) with a check in the amount of $51, 000 representing the total funds raised by the Sheriff's Department. The presentation will be made at 9:30 a.m. prior to the commencement of the Commission meeting.

SOGA will present Sheriff St Lawrence with a plaque in honor of being the highest fundraising agency in the State of Georgia. This honor also brings the privilege of bringing the "Flame of Hope" in during the State fall, winter, and summer games and lighting the cauldron to help signify the opening of the games.

Deputy Brenda Shermer, our Special Olympics coordinator, will also be recognized by SOGA for leading the charge for our agency. Deputy Shermer has been selected as the 2009 Hall of Fame recipient for the Law Enforcement Torch Run program for SOGA.
