Sheriff's Office "Hats for Haiti" fund campaign

The Chatham County Sheriff's Office will conduct a fund drive to help raise money for the people of Haiti during this time of natural disaster. The "Hats for Haiti" fund campaign will run for two days, starting on this Thursday January 28th and ending on Friday January 29th. The Sheriff's Office civilians will pay a fee to wear a hat of their choice and be allowed to dress down to a more casual outfit for work and the deputies will pay a fee to wear their utility uniforms to work. We will also have a hotdog and chili sale at the Sheriff's Complex on January 29th at 11:30 am until 1:30 pm.

The Sheriff will present a check representing the Chatham County Sheriff's Office to the Red Cross for the Haitian Earthquake Relief next week.
